The Payment of any and all legal fees and costs incurred by the Association to enforce violations or collect fines shall be the responsibility of the homeowner.

Homeowners are responsible for damage caused to the common area. It is the homeowner's responsibility to inform their tenants of the rules and regulations. The homeowner is responsible for any common area damaged caused by the tenants. Procedure

First Violation: A courtesy letter citing the specific violation(s) and requesting corrections of said violation(s).

Second Violation: A letter or email sent requesting the homeowner to appear at a hearing before the Board of Directors (or their appointed designees) to address the cited violation(s). The letter or email will identify the nature of the violation(s), date, time and location of the hearing. If the homeowner fails to appear at the hearing or provide written evidence on his/her behalf, a monetary penalty will then be imposed against the homeowner. The Board of Directors will notify the homeowner, in writing or email, of its decision.

Continuing Violation: The Board may impose a continuing monetary penalty, assessed on a weekly basis, without additional notice or hearing, until the infraction or violation has been remedied. (A continuing violation is a violation of an ongoing nature which has not been corrected.)

Repeat Violation: Hearing Letter to Homeowner.
(A repeat violation occurs when a person violates the same provision of the Association's governing document more than once and has already been given the appropriate warnings and hearing. A repeated violation will result in an immediate doubling of fines.)

Collections: Accounts will automatically be sent to the attorney for balances greater than $400.00, unless a payment plan has been agreed to by the violating party and the HOA.

There may be a repeat, continuing violation, in which case fines (which have been doubled) will be assessed on a weekly basis until the violation is corrected.
